Have you ever wanted to experience a day in the life of a real floor trader... surrounded by the industry's brightest and most successful market movers?

If so, then this is for you!

For an entire day, Prosper Trading Academy is inviting you to experience the CBOE live, in-person and discover some of the industry's leading proprietary strategies to help improve your own trading.

Here's what you can expect by attending:

- Live mock-trading session in the real S&P Options Pit
- Complimentary continental breakfast and lunch
- Untapped access behind the curtain of the actual CBOE
- Strategy sessions and hands-on instruction to improve your trading
- Bonus: Guest speakers like TD Ameritrade Networks' Kevin Hincks to help further your success

This event is coined the Bucket List Trading Experience for a reason... Friday December 7th will be a day that will radically transform your trading and a truly remarkable experience that you will want to share with your grandkids.

We hope to see you there!
